Over time the council may add to the channels of communication that it uses as it seeks to improve and expand the services it delivers. The Clerk is responsible for dealing with email received and passing on any relevant mail to members or external agencies for information and/or action. Internal communication and access to information within the Council

The Council is continually looking at ways to improve its working and the use of social media and electronic communications is a major factor in delivering improvement.

As more and more information becomes available at the press of a button, it is vital that all information is treated sensitively and securely. Councillors are expected to maintain an awareness of the confidentiality of information that they have access to and not to share confidential information with anyone. Failure to properly observe confidentiality may be seen as a breach of the Council's Code of Conduct and will be dealt with through its prescribed procedures (at the extreme it may also involve a criminal investigation).

Members should also be careful only to cc essential recipients on emails i.e. to avoid Use of the "Reply to All" if at all possible, but of course copying in all who need to know and ensuring that email trails have been removed.
